

All-Star Jazz & Gospel Festival Choir Workshop & Performance June 13-21, 2013

Program Leaders

- World-class jazz vocalist, composer, arranger, and multi-instrumentalist Carmen Lundy, the headline performer at this year's Isthmus Jazz Festival
- Iconic Madison gospel musicians Leotha and Tamera Stanley

Program Design

- Under Carmen Lundy's direction, and using one of her original compositions and arrangements, participants will learn how to craft a jazz vocal sound by refining color, shape, groove, and mood.
- Under Leotha and Tamera Stanley's direction, and using an original composition of Mr. Stanley's, participants will learn techniques of gospel singing in the traditional manner, as the song is taught without any written music and stylized to create the gospel sound.
- After rehearsals and the workshop session, the choir will perform both compositions before a live audience at the 2013 Isthmus Jazz Festival.
- To maximize their learning, participants will be expected to individually prepare their parts for each composition prior to the workshop.
